PLACES OF INTEREST IN THE SURROUNDINGS

Vallecrosia is included in the Marseille-Genova coastal strip, where it enjoys the best climate in Europe, and boasts three hundred days of sunshine a year. This small seaside resort in the far west of Liguria, at the confluence of the Verbone torrent, thanks to the mildness of its climate, is in fact a destination for summer and winter residential tourism.

It is an ideal starting point for excursions to the French Riviera and its splendid locations such as Nice, Monte Carlo and Cannes.

DESCRIPTIVE SHEET

The Town of Vallecrosia is located on the Ligurian Sea at the mouth of the Verbone stream (also called Crosia), about 12 km from the border with France and about 40 km from the regional capital. The stay is a detachment of the one in Sanremo (15 km away) and is located on the coast between Bordighera and Ventimiglia. Its geographical position and the proverbial climate of the "Riviera dei Fiori" which it benefits from all year round, favor tourism, both in winter and summer, thanks to the use of a free beach or one granted to private individuals (pebbly, about 1 km long). The base has a refreshment point with a coffee and drink vending machine. The 97 rooms available to guests, some recently renovated, all have an en-suite bathroom, television, minibar, fan and safe. The living room also has a spacious restaurant room, an elegant bar with vast internal and external spaces, a room for playing cards and billiards, a magazine and newspaper reading area, a large ballroom, a comfortable cinema where you can watch sporting events and films.

In place, a portion of the base hosts the military engaged in border control operations. In the small squares of the historic center of Vallecrosia Alta, an interesting typical market takes place on the second Sunday of every month. Vallecrosia Alta preserves its medieval layout quite well, with houses with red roofs, partly still made of tiles, as in the nearby Côte d'Azur. Upon arrival in the town, you immediately notice a sixteenth-century defense tower, while, inside the town near the Oratory of S. Maria delle Grazie, there is another one, also from the sixteenth century. In the small center there are some churches: the parish of Sant'Antonio Abate, of late medieval origin (but rebuilt in 1737) which houses two notable eighteenth-century wooden statues by Giovanni Maragliano, nephew of the famous Anton Maria, as well as an altarpiece from 1675 by Giovanni Battista Casoni, brother-in-law of the Genoese painter Domenico Fiasella. This is followed by the oratory of the Assumption, with a small triangular bell tower and eighteenth-century stucco work inside; and then Santa Maria delle Grazie, the oldest parish church, half hidden in an olive grove, which should be noted for its bare and evocative interior with a wooden roof supported longitudinally by a single beam, which is a trunk with only the bark removed.
